By submitting this application you – declare that this information is complete, true and accurate, and agree to the terms and conditions set out below. You will be required to agree to further terms and conditions at the media sign-on point for each event.

- MOTORCYCLE RACING IS DANGEROUS and that by engaging in the sport at the meeting I take and am exposed to certain risks and dangers and do so at my own risk.
- It is a condition of this media accreditation that all persons having a connection with the conduct and/or promotion of the event, including the owners of the land, the riders, owners of the vehicles and the passengers in the vehicles are absolved from all liability arising out of accidents causing damage or personal injury except where due care and attention have not been exercised.
- Australian Supercross Championships Media Accreditation passes remain the property of the Round Promoter and can be revoked by them at their discretion. Failure to follow instructions from Race Officials whilst at the venue will result in immediate revocation of accreditation and ejection from the venue.
- Lost accreditation must be reported immediately and a new pass will be issued. High visibility vests must be worn when in the designated racing area of the venue and returned at the conclusion of the event.
- If requested, you agree to supply the Promoter with copyright free images within one week for use at their discretion. The use of these images will mainly be for promotional and editorial purposes.
- Any film/video from events must feature the series logo which is obtainable by contacting the Promoter or contacting Motorcycling Australia.
- Films that the Promoter or Motorcycling Australia deem could potentially bring the Australian Supercross Championships brand or sponsors into disrepute must be removed immediately if requested to do so.
- Any social media posts must include the following: facebook – Australian Supercross Championship. Instagram: Aussupercross
